

Distinguished Speaker's Luncheon

Physicians for Peace is an international non-profit organization that sends volunteer teams of professional health care providers to places where their teaching and healing skills are needed most, including Libya. Our goal is to build peace and international friendships through medicine—regardless of politics, race, gender, religion or geography.

Physicians for Peace is proud to feature Libyan Ambassador Ali Suleiman Aujali at our Distinguished Speaker's Luncheon.

PHYSICIANS for PEACE

BUILDING PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIPS THROUGH MEDICINE

Co-Sponsored by:

Old Dominion UNIVERSITY

IDEA FUSION

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL
Greater Hampton Roads

Physicians for Peace Presents: LIBYA TODAY

Featuring
His Excellency
Ali Suleiman Aujali

Ambassador of the Great Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to the United States

Friday,
February 26, 2010

Registration: 11:45 a.m.
Program: Noon

Ted Constant Convocation Center
Old Dominion University ~ Norfolk, Virginia

Online Reservations Only at www.physiciansforpeace.org
RSVP by February 22

His Excellency
Ali Suleiman Aujali

Ali Suleiman Aujali became Ambassador of Libya to the United States in January 2009 following four years of service as Chargé d'Affaires of the People's Bureau of the Great Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya in Washington, D.C. He previously served as Chargé d' Affaires of the People's Bureau in Ottawa, Canada from 2001 to 2004.

Ambassador Aujali has served his country since 1971, when he worked as Third Secretary at the Libyan Embassy in London. In 1976, he moved to the Libyan Embassy in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, where he served as First Secretary until he was appointed Ambassador in 1981. In 1984, he was appointed Libya's Ambassador to Argentina. He served as Libya's Ambassador to Brazil from 1988 through 1994. While serving in Canada as Charge d' Affaires Ambassador Aujali founded the Libya/Canada Business Council.

When not on diplomatic assignments outside Libya, Ambassador Aujali held a variety of positions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tripoli including Deputy Director General of the Americas Department (1994-1998), Director General of the North and South Americas Department (1998-2000) and Director General of European Affairs (2000-2001).

In his capacity as a representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ambassador Aujali actively participated in a number of United Nations General Assembly sessions, led Libyan delegations to the Forum for Dialogue in the Western Mediterranean (also known as the 5+5 Dialogue), chaired sessions of the Joint Libyan Swedish Committee, and participated in several summits of the Non-Aligned Movement.

Born on October 10, 1944, Ambassador Aujali received his B.A. in Business Administration from the University of Benghazi.

For More Information: (757) 625-7569